DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Attention: Mr. Alfred R. Bleyleben

Re: Registration No. 625

Gentlemen:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of July 14, 1954, in which you advise that starting in September, 1954, you will publish the Austrian Trade Bulletin as an independent publication. You inquire whether it will be necessary for you to file and label the new publication in accordance with the requirements of Section 4 and Rule 400 of the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended.

A review of your Trade Bulletin, as enclosed with your letter, reveals that it does not contain political propaganda within the meaning of Section 1(j) of the Act. So long as the content of the new publication does not change from that of the bulletin which you forwarded, no filing or labeling is required.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM F. TOMPKINS
Assistant Attorney General
Internal Security Division

Re: WBS:PWSro - 149-3828 - Registration No. 625

Dear Mr. Foley:

With reference to Pointville add 11d of the supplemental registration statement filled out by our office semi-annually, we wish to inform you that from September, 1954 on, we will publish "Austrian Trade Bulletin" as an independent publication. If we understand the regulations, especially Section 4, and Rule 400 of the Foreign Agents Registration Act correctly, special provisions exist for the filing and labeling of any political propaganda published by foreign agents.

Our new trade bulletin will be exclusively a trade publication, containing no political matter whatsoever, but only items directly concerned with trade between the United States and Austria.

For your information we are enclosing our trade bulletin as it up to now appeared as an appendix to the Austrian Consulate's publication, "Austrian Information." Our new independent bulletin will be just like what we formerly published.

Please be kind enough to let us know whether, publishing this kind of bulletin independently, we have to comply with any special regulations such as mailing of copies, etc.

Sincerely yours,

THE AUSTRIAN TRADE DELEGATE
